Signatures

QC Officer:

Supplier Representative:

A handwritten signature featuring a large, bold, triangular shape. The top horizontal stroke is thick and solid. The left side is a thick vertical stroke, and the right side is a long, thin diagonal stroke extending from the top right towards the bottom left. There are some additional smaller strokes at the bottom.

Assistant Quality Manager:

A handwritten signature with a complex, angular structure. It features a large, sharp triangular shape with multiple intersecting lines. The top horizontal stroke is thick, and the sides are formed by several overlapping lines, creating a sense of movement and complexity. It ends with a long, thin horizontal stroke extending to the right.

Merchandiser:
